JAMES WOODHOUSE was born in Princess Anne county, Va., in 1814, and on the death of his parents, which occurred while he was quite young, was employed in a book store in Norfolk, where he remained several years. About the year 1840, he went to Petersburg, and there formed a partnership with E. P. Nash, then, and for many years afterwards, a prominent and successful bookseller of that city.

In 1844 they established a branch house in Richmond, under the name of Nash and Woodhouse, Mr. Woodhouse being the resident partner, which continued until Mr. Nash retired in 1856, when he became sole owner, and this continued until 1858, when B. M. Parham, who had been in his employment since 1851, was admitted as partner. The business was conducted under the name of James Woodhouse & Co., until 1865, when it was changed to Woodhouse & Parham, and so remained until 1882, when Mr. Woodhouse retired, and a new partnership was formed.

In 1840 Mr. Woodhouse was married to Miss Susan G. Harward, of Norfolk, who lived only a few years. While actively engaged in a congenial calling for sixty-five years, and absorbed in its duties, he yet found time to cultivate his taste for reading, and was well informed in general literature, and especially familiar with the history of Virginia. Mr. Woodhouse was a man of gentle manners, but of great firmness of character. He died June 23d, 1894, in his eightieth year.
